

Evening Telegraph

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED), AT THE EVENING TELEGRAPH BUILDING, No. 108 S. THIRD STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

The Price is three cents per copy (double sheet), or eighteen cents per week, payable to the carrier by whom served. The subscription price by mail is Nine Dollars per annum, or One Dollar and Fifty Cents for two months, invariably in advance for the time ordered.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1870.

The earliest regular edition of THE EVENING TELEGRAPH goes to press at 1 1/2 o'clock, and the subsequent regular editions at 2 1/2, 3 1/2, and 4 1/2. Whenever there is important news of the progress of the European war, extra editions will be issued after this hour, and before the regular time for the early edition.

THE HANLON TRIAL.

AFTER lengthy deliberation the jury in the Hanlon case have at last rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, and few persons who have read the proceedings of the trial will question the justice of this decision.

Of Hanlon's guilt there is scarcely a shadow of doubt, and we presume that the only question which has caused even momentary hesitation in the minds of the jury was the propriety of basing a conviction, mainly, on the testimony of a fellow-convict of the prisoner. It was right that the jury should pause and scan the evidence thoroughly to see whether Dunn was substantially corroborated, and we presume that the verdict is based on the belief that the veracity of his statement was well attested.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

The British lion has been aroused at last. He has tamely submitted to many taunts and threats. He has treated with sublime indifference the appeals for aid made by nations which had a legitimate claim to his assistance.

THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

The opposition now being manifested to the plan of the Public Buildings Commission to place one large and imposing edifice at the intersection of Broad and Market streets, instead of scattering a number of smaller structures over the four Penn. Squares, means nothing more nor less than that a desperate effort will be made by the property owners in the neighborhood of Independence and Washington Squares to set aside the emphatic verdict of the people given at the election last month.

If the ring of property holders who are now endeavoring to defeat the expressed will of the people in this matter can manage by legal proceedings to embarrass the commissioners, they will only delay the erection of the buildings, and cause an expenditure of money that had much better be devoted to some other object.

THE EDITOR'S SCIENTIFIC RECORD, EDITOR'S LITERARY RECORD, EDITOR'S HISTORICAL RECORD, EDITOR'S DRAWER.

The Forty-second Volume of HARPER'S MAGAZINE opens with the present Number. From the matter which they have on hand or which has been secured for this Volume, the Publishers confidently expect that it will even surpass its predecessors.

Each Number of HARPER'S MAGAZINE contains from fifty to one hundred per cent. more matter than a single Number of any other monthly periodical in the world, its contents being equal to those of a volume of Macaulay's History of England.

Each Number contains Serials and Short Stories from the best writers in Europe and America, contributed expressly for HARPER'S MAGAZINE; richly illustrated articles of Travel; carefully prepared papers of a Historical and Scientific character, a large number of which are profusely illustrated; timely articles upon important Current Topics; lighter papers upon an infinite variety of subjects; Poems from our most brilliant and popular writers; and, in addition to all these, five Editorial departments covering every matter of current interest, in Art, Society, History, Science, Literature, and Anecdote.

The Editor's Scientific Record contains every month from thirty to forty separate articles, giving the latest discoveries in Science, with special attention to their practical application. HARPER'S MAGAZINE, while it has so much for every class of readers, maintains throughout a high standard of literary excellence, not surpassed by that of any other periodical.

ZELL'S ENCYCLOPEDIA, DICTIONARY, AND GAZETTEER. Is now fast approaching completion. The price for the entire work, unbound, will still remain for a limited time as originally announced, namely, $25.

As it has been long advertised, and the number of the original work about 200 pages beyond the number at first proposed, those who purchase or subscribe now will get the benefit of this addition WITHOUT CHARGE, otherwise they will be obliged to pay for the same. This book is a complete and unabridged dictionary of the English language, as good as the best, a Gazetteer of the World, and a more complete, newer, and fresher Encyclopedia than any now in print; the price is lower than that of any other Encyclopedia and has a little above the charge for an Unabridged Dictionary or a Gazetteer alone—and being the latest and begun and completed within the short space of two years—not drawing through an unlimited number of years, as has always heretofore been the case with works of this magnitude—it must necessarily be by far the lowest in point of information, as, for example, the article Napoleon is brought down to his surrender, Prussia to the present war, etc.—and the population and area of every State of the World, and every State or that of the General Census of this year, or from other reliable information, and every pains taken to make the information given new and accurate.
